

THE ASPEN INSTITUTE

Allison Sampson

Congratulations on your participation in the Leading Change seminar, August 18-22, 2003.

The Aspen Institute is an international non-profit organization dedicated to informed dialogue and inquiry on issues of global concern. Founded in 1950, it has pursued its mission of fostering enlightened leadership through seminars, policy studies and fellowship programs. The Institute is headquartered in Washington, DC, and has campuses in Aspen, Colorado, and on the Wye River on Maryland's Eastern Shore. Its international network includes partner Aspen Institutes in Berlin, Rome, Paris and Tokyo, and leadership programs in Africa.

Fifty years ago, Walter Paepcke articulated his dream for the Aspen Institute as a place where the human spirit can flourish. From this vision, the Aspen Institute had become a global forum where leaders apply civilization's great ideas to modern-day challenges.

The Aspen Institute commends your commitment to these ideals.
