To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to offer a formal recommendation for the services of Allison Sampson. As the President of the West Adams Heritage Assn., she recently led our board retreat with excellent results.

Demonstrating an incredible initiative and a strong dedication, she started to work on our retreat three months in advance, to discover our goals and how to implement them into our coming year's agenda. By careful consideration, she devised a plan of attack for us that would make a lasting impact on our community.

She helped us to understand what our real obtainable goals were, how we could accomplish them, and how they fit in with our overall organization mission statement.

Most importantly, Allison ran a retreat that all of our board members enjoyed and had fun participating in (knowing our board, that is quite an accomplishment.)

I highly recommend Allison Sampson for your retreat or other organizational work– we did, and became a better board due to her efforts. We have booked her for again for the upcoming year.

Sincerely,

Jefferson Davis
